The screenshot shows the Surf Life Saving website's course selection interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Training Library', 'My Training', 'Help', and 'Account'. Below this, a breadcrumb trail indicates 'Categories > SLS - Safety and Wellbeing'. The main heading is 'Courses', followed by a sub-heading 'SLS - Safety and Wellbeing'. Two course cards are visible: 'SLS - Safeguarding Children and Young People Awareness Course' and 'SLS - Safer Surf Clubs'. A red callout box with the text 'Click on Enrol' points to the 'ENROL' button on the first course card.

The screenshot shows the content of the 'SLS - Safeguarding Children and Young People Awareness Course'. The page features a dark blue background with a white text box containing the following text: 'Child abuse and exploitation may be an issue with which you are familiar, or this may be the first time you have had to think about it. As you work through this course, you may begin to feel overwhelmed.' Below this is a 'Remember' section with three bullet points: 'You are not expected to become a child protection expert.', 'You may experience a range of emotions, including sadness, discomfort and distress, so please remember to take care of yourself throughout the course.', and 'If you find this course to be confronting or distressing and would like to speak to someone and seek support please contact Lifeline on 13 11 14 or visit <http://www.lifeline.org.au>'. A fourth bullet point states: 'Be aware of how you are feeling. Allow yourself to take breaks as you work through the material.' At the bottom of the page, there is a 'Menu' icon, a page indicator '1 | 18', and 'Back' and 'Next' navigation buttons. A red callout box with the text 'Complete course' points to the 'Next' button.

A horizontal flow diagram showing three steps: 'ACCOUNT LOG IN' (with a person icon), 'PROCESS PAYMENT' (with a credit card icon), and 'START TRAINING' (with a checkmark icon). Each step is enclosed in a circle, and they are connected by a line.
